

SALA

October 13, 2006

Samford University

800 Lakeshore Drive

Birmingham, Alabama 35209

SALA 2006

SALA
October 13, 2006
Samford University
Birmingham, Alabama

8:30-9:30 COFFEE HOUR & REGISTRATION

9:30 WELCOME

Laura Anderson, Birmingham Civil Rights Institute
Elizabeth Wells, Samford University
Dr. Andrew Westmoreland, President of Samford University

9:45 PLENARY ADDRESS

State of the SHRAB: Alabama's State Historical Records Advisory Board

Introduction-Dr. Ed Bridges, Alabama Department of Archives & History
Address-Tracey Berezansky, Alabama Department of Archives & History

10:30 BREAK

10:45 CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Session A: Moving Archival Collections

Moving archival collections from one environment to another can challenge even the most experienced archivists and records managers. Panelists share lessons learned during recent renovation and relocation projects at their repositories.

Tim Pennycuff (University of Alabama at Birmingham)
Clark Center (University of Alabama)
Alden Monroe (Alabama Department of Archives & History)

Session B: Ask Now of the Days That Are Past: Church Archives in Alabama

Panelists will discuss the archives of the Baptist, Methodist and Episcopal churches in Alabama, exploring the rich resources now available and the work still to be done.

Jim Baggett (Birmingham Public Library)
Guy Hobbs (Birmingham Southern College)
Liz Wells (Samford University)
Barry Vaughn (University of Alabama)

NOON

BBQ LUNCH

Everything but the Squeal: Hogs in Alabama Culture
Dr. Johnathan Bass, Samford University

1:15

PLENARY SESSION

Planning for Disaster Recovery

Kristen Givhan, Birmingham Chapter, Association of Record Managers & Administrators (ARMA)

Ms. Givhan, Business Continuity Analyst in Corporate Information Security for Regions Financial, presents a session on identifying and protecting the critical functions necessary to protect records in cases of catastrophic event or natural disaster.

2:15

SALA BUSINESS MEETING

3:00

CLOSING REMARKS

3:15-4:00

OPTIONAL TOUR

Special Collections in the Special Collection: A Tour of Samford University's Archives

Our host for the day offers a behind-the-scenes tour of the Special Collection Department of Samford University Library.